Importance: High

Dear Parties:

Thank you for your responses to the request for (a) your participation in making an argument, (b) your email address, (c) the telephone number that you will calling from also and using on Thursday, August 27th during the oral argument; (d) whether you needed a test run with Commission IT Staff concerning the Virtual Hearing Process; and (e) additional filings prior to the argument.

Having received a voice mail today from Diane Corley from attorney Jahue Moore, I am responding to Ms. Corley through this email concerning her procedural questions for the benefit and information of all in accordance with Commission policies and procedures. No one wanted or requested a test run. However, if attorney Moore wants a test run of the Virtual Hearing process with Mr. Erskine and/or Ms. Purvis, please advise as soon as possible so that can be arranged ASAP.

Please check attached Form, which is an Excel Spreadsheet, to make sure your email address and the telephone number that you will be using on Thursday, August 27th for the Oral Argument beginning at 10:00 a.m. If your email address (which is how you will receive the information for WebEx) and telephone is not correct or changes, please advise immediately. I have copied Mr. Erskine and Ms. Purvis on this email so that they will also know.

For the Oral Argument, you will need to use a computer with a video camera and you will need a telephone to use. Please note that Randy Erskine and/or Melissa Purvis will send you an invite to participate in the Oral Argument to your email address providing the necessary WebEx information – however, the email will not be sent from their email address but from “SCPSC WebEx scpsc.webex@psc.sc.gov”. The email will provide information on how to join and participate in the Virtual Oral Argument Hearing – which includes the use of both computer and telephone.

Remember anyone can watch the proceeding through the Commission’s website livestream link. See the Commission calendar for the link. Only those who want to make an appearance to the Oral Argument and also to present or argue need to be connected via WebEx to the Virtual Hearing.

At this time those participating in the Virtual Hearing are as follows pursuant to Regulation 103-842(B):

1. Petitioner SC Department of Consumer Affairs – Attorney Roger Hall
2. Party – Town of Irmo – Attorney Jahue Moore
3. Company – Blue Granite Water Company – Attorney Frank Ellerbe with

attorney Sam Wellborn

4. ORS – not planning to present – Attorney Andrew Bateman

Subject to modification by the Commission, the Commission shall hear the Oral Arguments or presentation from the parties in the order provided above and there is no specific time limit set at this time for a party's argument or presentation to the Commission.

If you should have any changes or edits to the attached Excel Spreadsheet entitled "PSC Virtual Hearing Media Plan" or any other question, please reply to all so that everyone has the same information unless such matter is NOT intended to be public or filed in the PSC DMS. Remember all communications with the PSC or its staff are posted in the DMS for that docket and are public information unless filed under seal (confidential).

If a party has any information, case law, or legal authority for the Commission related to this Oral Argument, it is requested that such matters be submitted and filed in the DMS prior to the hearing and preferably in advance of the hearing on Wednesday, August 26, 2020.

With kind regards, I am
